

ELENA BORODINA

Equilibristic

Silencio

To see the performance of "Silencio" is an aesthetic and sensual experience. This balancing act on a white cube is no ordinary handstand routine, it is a work of art, a moving sculpture in which the human form is transformed by flowing veils. The fascinating interplay of music and movement was choreographed by Valentin Gneouchev.

"Silencio" was presented in the Theatrevariete Wintergarten Berlin, Roncalli's Apollo Düsseldorf, Friedrichsbau Variete Stuttgart, as well in the Weihnachtscircusfestival Freiburg, the Circus Princessan Festival in Stockholm, Sweden and Teatro ZinZanni in San Francisco. This act was decorated with the Silver Medal at the Festival "Cirque de Demain 2001" in Paris.
